/ Equal Justice Works and the Texas Access to Justice Foundation celebrate 20 years of partnership

Equal Justice Works would like to thank the Texas Access to Justice Foundation for the tremendous contributions the Foundation has made to America's largest postgraduate legal fellowship program. Since 1999, the Texas Access to Justice Foundation has invested over $5 million to fund nearly 60 two-year Fellowships. These Fellows have delivered critically needed legal services at more than 20 nonprofit host organizations, working with a variety of populations in numerous areas of law including veterans, education, immigration, and community economic development. Among the Texas Access to Justice Foundations Fellows, over 80 percent remain in public interest today, working on behalf of underserved communities. This compendium demonstrates the impact that the Texas Access to Justice Foundation has had in launching the public interest careers of these attorneys. Equal Justice Works thanks the Texas Access to Justice Foundation for this outstanding commitment to fulfilling our nation's promise of equal justice for all.

/ Words of thanks from Texas Access to Justice Foundation Fellows

“When I heard the Texas Access to Justice Foundation had agreed to support a project to increase access to legal services for undocumented survivors of domestic violence in Laredo, I was delighted. I'd like to thank the Texas Access to Justice Foundation for their support as we worked to increase access to legal services for survivors of violence in the Laredo-Webb County area. Together we played an important role in empowering survivors!”

Adriana Rodriguez, 2011 Equal Justice Works Fellow

“I would like to thank the Texas Access to Justice Foundation for sponsoring my Equal Justice Works fellowship with Family Violence Prevention Services, Inc. (FVPS). The sponsorship of the Texas Access to Justice Foundation provides me with the opportunity not only to deter violations of court orders regarding domestic violence, but also to enable victims and their families to attain stability and safety. I am very excited about the opportunity to build on FVPS's history of providing comprehensive rehabilitative services to victims of domestic violence in San Antonio.”

Meghan Kempf, 2012 Equal Justice Works Fellow

“I am very grateful to Texas Access to Justice Foundation for providing me with the opportunity to found the Austin Medical-Legal Partnership, through which I work to address socio-legal issues causing or exacerbating health problems. I wake up excited every morning about my ‘dream job’—about the chance to learn something new and help someone in need. Words cannot express my gratitude to TAJF for making my Equal Justice Works Fellowship possible, so I will keep it simple: Thank you.”

Keegan Warren-Clem, 2012 Equal Justice Works Fellow

“I will be forever grateful to the Texas Access to Justice Foundation for making it possible for me to begin my legal career at the Texas Civil Rights Project. Their support and generosity allowed us to greatly expand access to interpreters around the state.”
